

FOREIGN OWNERSHIP NOTIFICATION

Australian laws and the Qantas Constitution impose a strict limit of 49% aggregate foreign ownership in Qantas.

Foreign persons must notify Qantas within 10 days after acquiring a relevant interest in Qantas shares.

The date we receive this completed form at the address above may be used to determine whether your shares must be sold if the 49% limit is exceeded.

If you are unsure whether you are a foreign person with a relevant interest you should obtain your own legal advice and not rely on the information provided here.

A foreign person is any person who is not: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) an Australian Citizen or individual who is ordinarily resident in Australia; (b) an Australian government (Commonwealth, State, Territory or Local) or government authority, or their nominee; (c) a body corporate that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) is incorporated under Australian Law; and (ii) is substantially owned and effectively controlled by persons referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (d); or (d) a trustee or manager (acting in that capacity) of a fund in which the total interests of persons referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) represent 60% or more of the total interests in the fund. 	A relevant interest in Qantas shares means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) a registered shareholding; (b) the power to vote in respect of the shares; (c) the power to dispose of the shares; or (d) control of a body corporate or managed investment scheme which is a registered shareholder or which has the powers referred to in paragraph (b) or (c). Power or control includes direct or indirect, joint, express or implied, formal or informal power or control, whether exercisable by or under, or through revocation of, a trust, agreement or practice or otherwise, whether restricted or enforceable or not. If you hold shares on trust for someone else and you have no rights in relation to them, you will not have the relevant interest.
